RUNS A BAD RACE AND CAUSES THE JUDGES TO ASK QUESTIONS.

Miss Sain Continues Her Victorious Career—Two Indictments Against the Latonia Jockey Club Returned.

Cincinnati, O., November 5.—A slight moderation in the weather caused an increase in attendance over yesterday. There was a reduction, however, in the ranks of layers by the dropping out of line of two bookmakers who operated previously. Unwieldy and poor fields that started in the first three races marred the sport to a noticeable extent. It also served to stagnate speculation, as very few showed an inclination to back their only half-formed opinions. The second race was an exception. Sea Swell appeared on previous form to outclass the others, but the short odds against the Cella candidate gave the rank and file slight opportunity to lay wagers. The mile and a sixteenth handicap for all ages enabled Miss Sain to gain another purse and, under the weight adjustment, she proved much the best and won with consummate ease from Redgauntlet. The latter was a lucky second, for, with any kind of good riding, W. F. Schulte's Gliding Belle would have taken second place and possibly given the winner an argument. The poor showing of Sally Preston occasioned adverse comment. She was away poorly and showed prominently for a half, but tired badly and ran far below her recent form.

The bad race that Please ran in the fifth was another staggerer that favorite players faced and brought out a loud howl from them. The filly failed to show much speed at any stage of the race and allowed Honest and Merrick to lead her by a comfortable margin in the first half and Topsy Robinson to pass her in the stretch for third place, Honest getting home a half length before Merrick. The judges were quick to note the poor performance of the filly and on her return to the scales had her trainer strip the bandages from her legs, but nothing was found concealed in the bandages to have retarded her speed. The trainer was at a loss to account for her poor showing and agreed with the judges that she had run a bad race. The matter is being looked into further.

The presence of the diminutive Brannon on Mrs. Sewall enabled her backers to get a long price and she scored a lucky victory despite the fact that she was much the best. In the closing race Brannon was astride Benart, the winner, but on this occasion he rode a good race and aided his mount to victory. George Bailey, at a long price, took the measure of a bad band in the third race and enabled his immediate connections to make a handsome profit.

Sea Swell, which ranked as one of the best youngsters at New Orleans, gave evidence of a return to good form by the impressive manner in which he disposed of his opposition in the second race, for which he was a short-priced favorite.

The Kenton County grand jury returned two indictments yesterday against the Latonia Jockey Club. The charge in the indictments is "operating a race track without a license." The indictments will not be brought to trial until the present suit in the Kenton County Circuit Court against the Kentucky State Racing Commission is decided. A decision in the case is unlikely until early next week.

W. B. Sink, Jr., who was at one time connected with "Lucky" Baldwin's stable, telegraphed here from California to different owners asking prices on their star racers. J. B. Respess priced Wintergreen at $3,000, and Tod Cella wired an answer that All Red was for sale at $5,000.

W. H. Fizer has faith in the contemplated racing venture at New Orleans and has announced his intention of shipping to the Crescent City immediately after the close of Latonia racing.

Horsemen are still anxiously awaiting Campbell Scott's announcement of plans for the proposed winter meeting to be held in New Orleans. Several additional horsemen from the east are expected to arrive here during the next few days.

Several of the more prominent horsemen are contemplating retiring from the racing here for the remainder of the season on account of scarcity of good riding talent.

RACING DEPENDS ON THE COURTS.

New York, November 5.—What is to be the future of the turf in this section is a subject which none of the persons chiefly interested will discuss, much less venture a prediction nor express an opinion. The re-election of Governor Hughes is conceded to be of momentous import, in that it reflects public sentiment in favor of the measures he urged and forced the enactment of to suppress betting at race tracks.

Speaking of the situation a prominent turfman said: "Our only resource is the Court of Appeals. We must get an opinion from that body defining the scope and, perhaps, the constitutionality of the Hart-Agnew law. If the bench of final jurisdiction in this state says the law in question is as comprehensive as Governor Hughes holds it to be, and has no limitation in its application to wagers on speed contests between horses, there will be only one thing for the racing associations to do, and that is to close their gates and go out of business.

"People will not attend races unless they can have more than a passive interest in them; they must be able to make a wager that will stimulate an active interest that will be exhilarating and healthful. As for the jockey clubs, they must have gate receipts and other revenue, in order to be able to offer valuable purses and stakes. We must await a final ruling on the law and shape our course accordingly.

"So far as the turf is concerned in the east, Maryland and Canada are the only sections in a position to continue the sport. Favorable laws are in the statutes of Maryland and if proper parties get control of racing in that state, there may be a broadening of operations and a healthy development of thoroughbred interests within its borders."

BOOKMAKERS AT OAKLAND.

San Francisco, Cal., November 5.—There is considerable speculation as to the probable number of books that will be in line on opening day at Emeryville. Last year twenty-nine books cut in on opening day, which represented the record for the beginning of any California season. From that figure the count steadily mounted until the record-breaking total of forty-two was reached when the season was at its height. It is considered likely that the showing on opening day this season will not vary much from the corresponding occasion one year ago, and there will be some surprise should more than thirty layers hang up their slates as a starter. Many layers who will break into the game later on are planning to get a line on the form of the horses before cutting in, and will allow a week or two to go by before they venture to chalk up any odds.

DEMOCRATS VOTED FOR HUGHES.

Governor Hughes' re-election by a plurality so small in comparison with that of Mr. Taft in this state is significant of the resentment of a great body of voters caused by his imperious insistence upon the anti-betting legislation and a belief that he would favor enactment of further laws designed to restrict personal liberty. But for Mr. Taft's tidal wave it is doubtful whether Mr. Hughes would have been elected. At the same time the vote in New York City—regarded as the stronghold of the "personal liberty" advocates—shows that many democrats voted for him and presumably approved of his course.—New York Herald.

INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT PIMLICO.

Good Racing and Several Track Records Broken—Washington Meeting Announced.

Baltimore, Md., November 5.—The Maryland Jockey Club provided an excellent program for patrons of the Pimlico course this afternoon. There were two handicaps on the card, the Baltimore Brewers' Handicap for three-year-olds and over and the Juvenile Handicap for two-year-olds. A steeplechase over the short course also served as a feature. The attendance showed a decided increase over that of yesterday, the ranks of the regulars being swelled by the arrivals of many turf followers from New York. Favorites managed to win three of the races, the successful choices being Consistent, Sir Wooster and Statesman. Large fields went to the post in a majority of the races and good racing was in order. Two more track records were reduced, a new mark for one mile and seventy yards being established when Tony Bonero won the third race in 1:44⅘, which was a full second faster than Live Wire ran the distance on October 24 last.

In the fifth race, which was won by Bobbie Kean, he ran a mile and a sixteenth in 1:47⅘, which was almost a half second faster than the previous track record for the distance, which was held by the same horse that broke it today.

A stiff wind blew down the homestretch, and this was in a measure responsible for the fast time made. Goldstein rode two winners. Consistent and Trey of Spades, Jockey Notter, who was an arrival from New York this morning, had several mounts during the afternoon. He won with Statesman and was beaten a head with Queen of the Hills.

Jockey McCahey, one of the most promising jockeys here, met with a mishap while riding Ragman in the Juvenile Handicap. In the racing down the backstretch the field bunched up and at the half mile there was a lot of crowding. Ragman was on the inside and he was thrown on the fence with force enough to break the boy's leg just above the ankle. McCahey, with great gameness, hung on to Ragman and, pulling him up, galloped in behind his opponents. He was helped to dismount and carried to the jockeys' room and later removed to the home of his employer, T. E. Mannix.

W. D. Althouse purchased of the Montpelier Stable the chestnut colt, Incognito.

T. G. Molinelli, accompanied by jockey Liebert, arrived this morning and will finish out the meeting here. Molinelli will send his stable from New York to Havana.

F. W. Gerhardy, secretary of the Havana Jockey Club, has received applications for about 100 stalls from horsemen racing here who wish to take part in the meeting at the Almendares track next winter.

James McLaughlin's useful plater, Lally, fell lame today and will be turned out for the winter.

C. C. Smithson, owner of Bobbie Kean, winner of the fifth race, claimed Juggler out of the race for $1,050.

Colonel Robert Neville announced today that a four-days meeting will be given at Washington beginning Saturday, November 14. If the attendance warrants a continuance, the meeting will be extended, probably for a week or more. The purses will be $250 for flat races and $300 for steeplechases and there will be six races each day. Many of the horsemen now racing at Pimlico have said they will ship to Washington to race during the meeting there.

J. J. Hyland, who went to New York for the last day's racing at Jamaica, returned today and brought with him jockey W. Cullen, who will ride through the meeting.

Many owners will leave here on Saturday night for New York, where they will go into winter quarters. Among the stables that will winter in New York is that of George Odom. Some of the horses here will be sent to Cuba and others will go to Los Angeles.

J. W. Pangle will take a strong stable to Cuba, among the horses being Gridiron, which has been one of the developments of the Pimlico meeting.

CARMAN'S NOMINATIONS NOT WANTED.

San Francisco, Cal., November 5.—It became known today that the California Jockey Club declined to accept a big batch of stake nominations made by R. F. Carman, who was one of the chief nominators last season. Several unpleasant occurrences in which Carman and his connections figured here last winter are responsible for the disfavor in which he is held.

Jockeys V. Powers, A. Walsh and C. Ross are the most recent arrivals. With Powers came his father and Louis Cahn, who will make his engagements. Powers will ride here until Santa Anita opens and will then go to that track for the remainder of the winter.

M. Garrity's contract on jockey Archibald has been acquired by A. B. Spreckels and Archibald will come here from Santa Anita immediately.

Jockey Kirschbaum today entered the service of J. D. Millin. Jockey McLaughlin, having been reinstated, has arrived from Salt Lake City and will ride for Dan Dennison. Jockey J. Lee will arrive tomorrow from New Orleans. Jockey Rettig will probably ride for C. R. Ellison. Ellison tried to buy the contract on jockey McCarthy, but terms were considered excessive.

Today's arrivals included Fred Myrtle from Sacramento with J. H. Touhey's Gossiper II., Charley Paine and Heydentus, and James Coffey from British Columbia with Elmdale, Nappa, Em and Em and Red Ball.

Walter Miller has been industriously engaged in galloping horses for the past few days and will be in good condition for the opening.

Sam Hildreth has decided to accept the weights alloted Montgomery, Dandelion, Fitz Herbert and Angelus for the Opening Handicap and that quartette will run in the opening day's feature with jockeys Koerner, Powers, Shilling and Upton as their respective pilots. Jack Nunnally, Royal Tourist, Eyebright, W. T. Overton and Firestone are others that will accept the weights.

Hildreth's entry will probably be about even money favorite. Dandelion went an impressive six furlongs today in 1:14 and galloped out the mile in 1:41⅘. Royal Tourist worked a mile in 1:42⅘; Sugarmaid and Fantastic in 1:43⅘. Other good moves were: Fred Bent, six furlongs in 1:14; Aftermath, five furlongs in 1:01⅘; Silver Stockin, three-eighths in 35; Toll Box, five furlongs in 1:01⅘.

Eddie Austin and Sam Frank are the latest additions to the bookmaking fraternity on the ground.

ROYALTY IN OLD TIME MATCHES.

Matches often were run under royal patronage. So far back as 1377 the prince who became Richard II. seems to have been beaten in a match against the Earl of Arundel—"owners up"—and afterward to have bought the victor's horse for a sum equal now to $20,000. King Charles II. himself rode his horse, Woodcock, in a match at Newmarket in 1671, and was beaten. Even the austere King William III. ran a horse in a match for a stake of 2,000 guineas, while Queen Anne ran several horses in her own name in matches at York and at Newmarket. The future George IV. ran a memorable match against time when twenty-two years of age, riding from Brighton to London and back (112 miles) in ten hours, on the same horse, as it appears.

NEW STEEPLECHASE STAKE PLANNED.

Horsemen of Virginia and Maryland are planning the institution of a steeplechase at two miles and a half that may become an annual fixture of importance. The race will be run, unless the scheme now under way miscarries, at Pimlico track either next spring or next fall.

It is to be a Virginia and Maryland race exclusively, ten men from each state annually subscribing $100 and nominating three horses, all of which may start, and the Maryland Jockey Club to add from $500 to $1,000 and a piece of plate to the subscriptions.

Winner—B. c. by Goldcrest—Grace Lee (trained by F. M. Bray).

Went to post at 2:15. At post 8 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second and third driving. Gus Helm followed the leaders to the stretch, where he slipped through on the inside and, finishing fast, caught Endymion tiring and won going away. Endymion showed much speed for a half mile before he tired and held on gamely. Soil dashed to the front at the start and opened up a commanding lead, but quit after going three furlongs and was driving hard at the end to stall off Boz. The latter ran away and galloped three miles while on his way to the post, then ran a good race. King Commoner closed a big gap and tired. Babble and Puddin showed speed and failed to stay.

Scratched—78020 Sally Toney, 107; 78032 Pescatore, 107.

Overweights—Soil, 1½ pounds; Boz, 3.

Winner—B. m. by Galore—Conjectrix (trained by R. J. Walden).

Went to post at 2:46. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Consistent, off forwardly, dashed into the lead quickly, but was taken back on the backstretch and rated along to the final furlong where she drew to the front and won going away. Peep In was much used in keeping pace with the winner and tiring in the stretch and driving to the limit to stall off Euripides. The latter came again at the end and would have been second in a few more strides. Youthful was caught in a jam at the start and met with repeated interference and ran a good race. Laura A. went well. Neoskaleeta closed a gap. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—Br. c, by Sain—America (trained by J. J. Hyland).

Went to post at 3:09. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Tony Bonero, off forwardly, was dropped in behind The Wrestler and raced under slight restraint until straightened out in the homestretch, then moved up and drew away into an easy lead at the end. The Wrestler outbroke the others and showed extreme speed for seven furlongs, but was tiring at the end. Gridiron was outrun all the way, but finished gamely and outstayed Berkeley at the end. The latter ran prominently to the stretch and tired.

Scratched—(78053) Superstition, 102; 78053 Hiacko, 86; 78065[3] Euripides, 92.

Overweights—Lally, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. g. by Ardington—Lady Wooster (trained by H. Craven).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won cantering; second and third easily. Sir Wooster outran and outjumped his opponents all the way and was eased up after taking the last fence. Waterway was hard ridden all of the last time around in an attempt to get to the leader and made a bad landing at the eighth jump, where he went to his knees. Economy was outrun all the way. Bilberry lost his rider on the flat after taking the seventh jump, one of the stirrup leathers on his saddle breaking. Rye Boy fell at the eighth and Grandpa at the twelfth jump.

Winner—B. h, by Flatlands—Lizzie M. (trained by W. H. Brooks).

Went to post at 3:59. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Bobbie Kean left the post with a rush and, running into a big lead on the first turn, set a fast pace until in the last furlong, where he tired and was driving hard at the end to stall off Queen of the Hills. The latter, always in closest pursuit, was wearing the winner down at the end. Juggler made up some ground, but ran a dull race. Solon Shingle was crowded against the inside fence by Alex Grant at the seven furlongs post. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Scratched—78056 Ivanhoe, 116; 78066 Lally, 117; 78056 Campaigner, 112.

Overweights—Queen of the Hills, 2½ pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Kinley Mack—Janice (trained by F. E. Gardner).

Went to post at 4:25. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Statesman was saved in the early running and waited with until straightened out in the homestretch, then finished with a rush and won going away. Waponoca was a game contender for the entire trip, followed Tasley closely all the way and outstayed her in the final drive. Tasley showed a fine turn of early speed and set a fast pace, but tired in the last sixteenth of a game effort. Ragman was sharply cut off at the half-mile post and was pulled up. Footpad finished close up. Cunning ran well.

Winner—B. g, by Fatherless—Vigilette (trained by W. F. Presgrave).

Went to post at 4:45. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Trey of Spades was dropped in behind Castlewood to the turn into the homestretch, where he moved up fast and drew away into an easy lead at the end. Castlewood showed the most early speed and set a fast pace, but could not stall off the winner's challenge. George G. Hall closed a gap and easily disposed of Stargowan in the stretch drive. The latter ran a dull race. Glorious Betsy showed speed. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Scratched—77971 Bob Callahan Jr., 104; 78053 Ballot Box, 109; 78052 Faust, 109; 78022 Beggarman, 108; 77903 Nioless, 109.

Winner—B. f, by Masetto—Maltese Cross (trained by L. Christy).

Went to post at 1:59. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Mrs. Sewall, clear of interference and running gamely throughout, closed a big gap, wore the leaders down in the last furlong and won going away. Almena, away fast, showed superior early speed and raced Zarape into defeat, but tired slightly in the final drive. Zarape followed Almena closely early and took the lead on the turn, but gave way after going a fast half. The Missus, in close quarters most of the trip, ran a good race. Olive Ely, away from an outside position, was forced to go wide throughout and ran well. Denver Girl and Emily Almanac were prominent early. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Scratched—77937 Icaria, 105; 77963 She Wolf, 108.

Overweights—Zarape, 3½ pounds.

Winner—Ch. c, by Cesarion—Nydia (trained by L. Johnson).

Went to post at 2:24. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third the same. Sea Swell, much the best, was reserved for the first half and came away when his rider was ready. Jolly ran prominently throughout, was easily best of the others and finished gamely. Romp began slowly and moved up steadily in the stretch, finished resolutely and wore Zeola down in the closing strides for third place. Zeola, away fast, showed the most speed for a half, but tired badly in the last furlong. Hawkslight ran a good race and is showing improvement. The winner was entered for $800; no bid.

Scratched—77963 Roseburg II., 102; 78039 Splendida, 99; 78058 King Ferdinand, 107.

Winner—Ch. g, by What-er-lou—Signora (trained by J. A. Strode).

Went to post at 2:49. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. George Bailey followed Bensonhurst closely from a fast beginning and, taking the lead in the stretch, held Canopian safe and won going away. Canopian ran well and held on gamely in the stretch drive. Tom McAfee closed a big gap and would have been dangerous with better racing luck. Stoner Hill ran a bad race and can do better. Canada had no mishaps and is in poor form at present. King Folly was practically left at the post. Bensonhurst set a fast early pace and quit. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Scratched—74848 Orlandot, 102.

Winner—B. f, by Sain—Miss Baker (trained by D. Vititoe).

Went to post at 3:13. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Miss Sain was a close contender for a half and then passing Sally Preston was never fully extended to win. Redgauntlet, hard ridden all the way, moved into second place on the stretch turn and outstayed Gliding Belle in a hard drive. The latter ran well and would have been no worse than second with competent riding. Sally Preston acted badly at the post, had much the worst of the start and tired badly after going three-quarters. Woolstone ran fairly well, but belongs in slower company.

Overweights—Woolstone, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B. c, by Sorcerer—Priceless (trained by F. Hanlon).

Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Honest was away well and showed the most early speed and, although tiring fast in the last furlong, held on long enough. Merrick was always in closest pursuit and finished gaining when too late. Topsy Robinson came from a long way back in the last half and finished gamely. Please ran a bad race and failed to show much early speed, quit badly in the last furlong and can do much better. The winner was entered for $600; no bid.

Time, 24⅖, 49⅕, 1:14⅖.

Winner—B. g, by Cesarion—Strathwitch (trained by E. Horton).

Went to post at 4:05. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second and third the same. Bonart, away fast, wore Gresham down after going a half and held the others safe in the stretch drive. Rexall was prominent all the way and finished gamely. Gresham showed the most speed for a half and tired badly in the stretch. Warner Griswell had a rough trip and came with a rush in the last quarter. Van Dan was shuffled back in the first quarter and again forced back at the half, had to go wide in the stretch and, coming with a rush, would have been third in a few more strides. Bonebrake ran fairly well. There was much crowding all the way. The winner was entered for $300; no bid.

Scratched—77979 Granada, 102.

HOW THEY DO IT AT SHREVEPORT.

Shreveport, La., November 5.—Because of the law passed at the last session of the legislature prohibiting bookmaking, speculation on the horse races at the Louisiana State Fair here this year is conducted differently from former ways. There is no system of betting. It was stated by some of the horsemen that it would be the oral system, but conditions puzzled the visitors. Persons not familiar with turf wagering had no idea there was betting in any form, for to the ordinary eye it was not evident. Visiting horsemen and local sportsmen exchanged considerable money and seem to have enjoyed the new form of making wagers, but all of them were careful not to make their movements public. On some of the races large sums are understood to have been transferred in this manner, the conditions of the speculation being strictly between individuals. There were present many lovers of the sport who have always participated in book betting, and although none of them was seen flashing tickets and running to the money counter, they held in their memories the offers that had been made. The individual betting is something strange here. The management of the races have made known the provisions of the law prohibiting bookmaking betting and say they will not sanction violations.

LUCKY ESCAPE OF THOROUGHBREDS.

The large Lamport-Holt Line steamship Velasquez, which left New York on August 20 destined for Buenos Ayres, Argentina, with the shipment of the Keene and Haggin thoroughbred mares and stallions, and which arrived at its destination in due time without any mishap, is reported to have been wrecked off the coast of Brazil on its return trip. A London paper prints the following regarding the wreck: "Lloyds' casualty list announces the running ashore on the rocks at a point adjacent to Santos, Brazil, of the very fine freight and passenger liner Velasquez, belonging to the Lamport-Holt Line, while on her homeward voyage to New York. A month ago in this column we noted her arrival at Buenos Ayres with 100 head of bloodstock, fully insured and consigned by Messrs. Haggin and Keene for sale by public auction. It is fortunate for those underwriters who carried the bloodstock risk that this casualty did not take place when passing the same spot on the outward voyage, as some doubt is expressed as to whether the liner can be salved. The Velasquez is new, cost upward of $500,000, and is admirably adapted for the carriage of valuable live stock."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

M. J. Daly will train several yearlings and one three-year-old for S. S. Eckles of California, who is a newcomer to the sport.

One more day and "they're off" will be the cry at Oakland. However it may be elsewhere there is no doubt that a long and prosperous meeting will be inaugurated there tomorrow.

Evidently the Havana meeting is to be an affair of much more importance than was at one time thought possible, and it is quite the real thing that will be offered for the delectation of the Cubans.

It is said that there is a plan on foot in England to levy a duty on all American yearlings sent to that country to be sold at auction. The good prices recently paid for American yearlings on the other side have not been a source of gratification to the native breeders.

S. C. Hildreth is not at all satisfied with the appearance of Angelus, and the horse may be given a chance to pick up materially before anything is asked of him in the way of racing. Failure to ship as well as he might may to some degree account for the horse's looks.

Jim Gaffney, the good colt that Frank D. Weir will ship to California, is going sound after a year's retirement and Weir expects him to show to advantage in the stakes for which he has nominated him. Weir made nearly forty nominations for the California Jockey Club's stakes.

Eddie Jones, who was forced to retire from the saddle owing to paralysis following a fall and illness in Belgium, has gone into the cafe and cigar business at Oakland. He is also acting as a public trainer, and already is handling Queen Bessie, a three-year-old filly by Woolsthorpe—Lady Philura.

Merwin K. Hart, who introduced the Hart-Agnew bill in the New York assembly, was decisively beaten for re-election to that body by a vote large enough to indicate clearly that, although he had contended that he should be returned to the assembly because of the support he gave to the governor in his fight against racing, his district was of the opinion that he was not entitled to another term for this reason.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

J. A. N., Chicago. The sum due was $15.

D. D., Lawrence, Kan. You are misinformed. Roseben is very much alive.

Dave L., St. Louis, Mo. 6 to 5 would be a fair price with Footpad deducted.

Deacon, Cincinnati, O. Certainly. Any bet that a layer accepts is good, unless it is impossible of execution.

J. C., Buffalo, N. Y. Adesso opened at 3 to 1 and closed at 4½ to 1, 6 to 5 and 1 to 2, October 23. Cooney K., in his race of October 27, closed at 3 to 1, even and 1 to 2.

J. D. S., Louisville, Ky. Your contention is correct and the wager on All Red was good. The All Red race was over at 3:47:40. The horses went to the post in the Vesme race at 3:50.

George, Cincinnati, O. The wager was not in time if it was based on post time strictly. Whether time at the post is to be considered or not is a matter that should be agreed upon when the bet is made.
